Public Comment and Correspondence:

Dan Garvy introduced Lisle Intern Brandon Bancoro, a student from the University of Illinois.

Matt Corso recognized Cathy Morava for reaching her 35 year milestone at SEASPAR. Matt stated Cathy has touched thousands of lives and commended Cathy for her dedication to participants, families, and staff. Cathy started her career as a recreation specialist, community recreation coordinator, safety coordinator, supervisor, and superintendent.

Cathy said she loved working with special kids in grade school which led her to a career in special recreation. She thanked the Board for their years of support.

Approval of Consent Agenda:

Mike Adams moved to approve the May 15, 2018 Board and Executive Session Meeting Minutes; the Cash Disbursements in the amount of $159,861.56; and the Bank Reconciliation from May 2018 as presented. Bob Fleck seconded the motion.

Motion Carried Unanimously

Recreation Report:

Cathy Morava stated there are 104 inclusion placements underway this summer.

Cathy thanked Bob Fleck and the Westmont Park District staff for their assistance with the Kick-Off on June 3.

Cathy noted Matt, Beth, and Briana Corso were highlighted in the PDRMA Health in Action Newsletter.

Administrative Services Report:

Karen Lesniak reported that flip phones have been replaced by smart phones and are being used by day camp site directors, EAGLES staff, and Lisa Barrera and Rachel Pavesich for summer camp.

Fund Development Report:

Lisa Rasin announced the Golf Outing was July 13. She noted the $5,000 donation for a power soccer chair from the Rotary Club of Downers Grove. Dan Garvy suggested that contact be made with other member Rotary clubs to seek donations.

Board and staff discussed transporting, storing, and keeping the chairs charged. The Board suggested investigation of purchasing a box trailer to transport the chairs.

Marketing Report:

Morgan Mason had nothing else to add to her report.

Executive Director's Report:

Matt Corso indicated there was a new Board directory in their folders. He also stated he was working on audit preparations.

Matt reported Special Olympics Summer Games were held last weekend. He stated two participants in the new developmental swim program won gold medals.

Matt reported that SEASPAR golf participant, Adam Sikora from Lisle, joined the Lemont Park District foursome including Louise Egofske, Lisa Rasin, and Greg Pavesich at the United Sertoma Lemont Charter Annual Golf Outing on June 13. Greg Pavesich has been partnering with Adam at the Unified Golf program.

Matt said summer training was completed, however Lisa Barrera is available to meet with park district staff to help with any inclusion issues.
