Additional Information:

Transportation is NOT provided to practice or home games. Please arrive 30 minutes early for games. Information regarding the TR Section and Special Olympics Tournament will be sent out at least a week prior to the event including location, game times, transportation, etc.

Please bring a filled water bottle to every practice and game. Please also bring additional snacks and food to all games and tournaments. For daytime games, please bring/wear sunscreen.

Uniforms & Equipment:

All softball athletes will receive a Spartans uniform (jersey and pants) at the beginning of the season. Please wear the full uniform to every game and tournament in addition to socks and athletic/tennis shoes or plastic cleats. To practice, athletes may wear their uniform or a T-shirt and shorts in addition to their softball shoes and socks. Please clean and wash your Spartans softball uniform regularly and turn them in at the end of the season clean.

If you have your own softball equipment (glove, bat, helmet, etc.), please bring it to every practice, game and tournament. SEASPAR will have some additional team equipment, but not enough for the entire team. Coaches may inspect the equipment to ensure it follows Special Olympic and Slow Pitch guidelines.

Special Olympic Information & Tournaments:

Center of Excellence Portal & Paperwork:

All athletes must be registered and approved in the Special Olympics Center of Excellence Portal by Friday, June 19th. If an athlete does not have the required Athlete Acknowledgement form and Health History and Release form completed and approved in the COE by the deadline, they will not be eligible to compete in the Special Olympics Regional Tournament on Sunday, August 2nd.

Special Olympics Regional Tournament & State Qualification:

The Special Olympics Regional Softball Tournament will be held at Inwood Sports Complex (3000 W Jefferson St) in Joliet. Information about the Special Olympic Tournament will be sent out at least a week prior to the event.

Teams that place 1st or receive gold medals in their division at Regionals will qualify for the Special Olympics State Softball Tournament on Saturday, September 12th and Sunday, September 13th at Lincoln Sports Complex in Springfield.
